Florida Virtual School® Recognizes Former Board Chair with Leadership Legacy Award

Orlando, FL (Dec. 1, 2017) – Florida Virtual School (FLVS®) recognized its former Board of Trustees Chair, Dr. Dhyana Ziegler, at its annual In-Service Training Days on November 30, 2017. Ziegler was given the first ever Leadership Legacy Award in appreciation for her unwavering dedication and support to students and parents across Florida.

Ziegler served a two-year term as FLVS Board Chair, which concluded in June 2017. She still remains on the Board as a member.

“Dr. Ziegler’s leadership and guidance was an integral part of FLVS continuing its path of educational excellence and dedication to serving Florida’s youth,” said Dr. Jodi Marshall, president and CEO for FLVS.

“I’m honored and proud to receive the Leadership Legacy Award for my years of service to FLVS and its vision to transform education one student at a time,” said Ziegler. “FLVS is a crown jewel in virtual education, not only for the state of Florida, but the entire world and to be able to serve the institution and the State of Florida is a real privilege.”
